

TITLE: INSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEES

Institutional Committees will be utilized to facilitate communications and afford employees the opportunity of having input into the operation of the college. The President will establish the structure of the committees, including areas of responsibility, and will periodically review the type(s) of committees--standing or ad hoc--needed to effectively address the changing educational issues facing the college. To the extent practical and as appropriate, committees will be all inclusive, with representation from various employee groups.
