

TITLE: ACADEMIC PROBATION AND SUSPENSION POLICY

Students in college are expected to assume responsibility for their own work. The following policy is in effect:

1. A first semester freshman will be placed on probation if s/he achieves a grade point average less than 1.6 at the end of the semester; s/he may be suspended if his grade point average is less than 1.0 at the end of the semester.
2. A second semester freshman will be placed on academic probation if his/her cumulative grade point average at the end of the second semester is less than 1.75; s/he may be suspended if his/her grade point average is less than 1.25 for the semester.
3. A third semester student will be placed on academic probation if his/her cumulative grade point average at the end of the semester is less than 1.8; s/he may be suspended if his/her grade point average is less than 1.5 for the semester.
4. A fourth semester student will be placed on academic probation if his/her cumulative grade point average is less than 2.0; s/he may be suspended if his grade point average is less than 1.75 for the semester.
5. A student in his/her fifth semester (or more) may be suspended if his/her grade point average is less than 2.0.
